

I have been notified that a petition has been presented to weaken the Indiana's telephone privacy law. I am VERY MUCH against this. I have enjoyed solicitors not call at all hours of the night and during meals. If I want to do business with are particular company I will contact them. I do not want to be harassed by companies at home.

Thanks,
Bryan Yates